Competition Secretaries

While every care is taken in drawing up the Kilkenny Photographic Society Competition Rules the information given in this document is, to the best of our knowledge, true and complete.

Version 2.2.1

The Monthly Competition is a KPS club competition, open to fully paid up members only.

To ensure fair competition between photographers of similar ability, Members participating in KPS (PotY) competitions are divided into three categories based on the following criteria.

- A. Novice: A New Member who hasn't been a member of any other camera club or Photographic Society, or has a qualification in Photography

- B. Intermediate: Any member who doesn't qualify for a Novice or Advanced categories, or who has won a KPS PotY Novice award.

- C. Advanced: A member who has got a distinction / accreditation from the IPF, RPS or equivalent national or international photography organisation, or has received 2 or more salon medals, or who is a professional or semi-professional photographer, or a member who has won a KPS PotY Intermediate award.

Winners of the KPS PotY Novice and Intermediate category will automatically be promoted to the next category. Members can also request to be promoted to a higher category subject to approval by the KPS committee.
